

STUDY GUIDE QUESTIONS – WEEK 46

- 1. According to Jeremiah, what does God have in store for Babylon? Why?
- 2. What is the main theological theme of the Book of Lamentations? For whom do you think this book was originally written? Why? Whom might this book speak to today? Why?
- 3. Who is Ezekiel? To whom does God send him to speak? What is his message?
- 4. What do you think of Ezekiel's visions? How did he interpret them? How do you interpret them? How do you interpret your own visions or dreams? Do they influence your actions? Why or why not?
- 5. According to Paul, why do we have so much "blood" symbolism in our Judeo-Christian traditions? What did the blood of animal sacrifices symbolize? What does the blood of Christ symbolize?
- 6. In Paul's theology, how are we directly connected to God through Christ?
- 7. Why does Paul describe Noah, Abraham, and Sarah as people of faith? What did they do?
- 8. According to Paul, what should we be constantly keeping our eye on? Why? What will it do to our lives?