

STUDY GUIDE QUESTIONS – WEEK 49

- 1. What is the message of hope or “Good News” that is summed up in the final chapter of Ezekiel?
- 2. What is the historical context of the book of Daniel? When was it written and for whom? How is the book organized?
- 3. The story of Daniel in the lions’ den is one of the most well known stories in the Bible. Why? What is its message? How might you retell this story today for a contemporary audience?
- 4. What do you make of Daniel’s visions in Chapters 7-12? What do you think they would have meant to Daniel’s original audience? Do his visions hold any meaning for you today? If so, what?
- 5. According to John, what does it take to live a “righteous” life?
- 6. How does John define love? Why is love so central to his theology? How would you describe love to another person?
- 7. What is an Antichrist? Why does John warn his congregations about these people? What do they do in the world? Why?
- 8. What problem does Jude feel is tearing apart the early church? How can the church overcome this problem?